Mrs. Grace Lewis, 29 North Rowland Street, was fined $10 and costs by Justice Maurice in the Police Court when she was arraigned yesterday morning on a charge of being disorderly and fighting in the street. It is said that she used an umbrella and her fists to take her husband to task on Ninth Street Saturday afternoon, and that she used both weapons to advantage. She later reported to the police that she had lost a $10 diamond setting to a ring she wore during the fracas. It had not been recovered last night.

City Seeks Reimbursement for Injuries to Employe Run Over by Automobile.
City Engineer Bolling reported to the Administrative Board yesterday that C. B. Holzbach, foreman of the force for cleaning out street basins, was recently injured while in the discharge of his duty by being run over by an automobile pie wagon belonging to the Connecticut Fie Company. Since the accident Mr. Holzbach has been confined to his room. Mr. Bolling recommended that the injured man be allowed pay for the time lost on account of the accident.

The board entered an order authorizing the City Engineer to continue Mr. Holzbach on the pay-roll, and directed that suit be entered against the Connecticut Fie Company in the name of Mr. Holzbach for a sum large enough at least to cover the time lost and all incidental expenses.

Henderson Appointed.
Governor Stuart yesterday appointed A. T. Henderson, of Lynchburg, to serve the unexpired term of George Mahon as a member of the State Board of Accountancy. The term for which Mr. Mahon was appointed expires June 16, 1915. Like his successor, Mr. Mahon is a citizen of Lynchburg. The board meets twice each year to examine applicants for license to practice as certified public accountants.

HEARTY WELCOME ACCORDED MERCHANTS

All roads led to the Southern Bar-gain House during "Better Acquaint-ance Week." Hundreds of visitors were enthusiastic over the warm and hearty welcome accorded visiting merchants by this firm. A pretty four-plece manicure set, in a rich leather case, was presented to each lady, while every visiting merchant received as a souvening a hardsome invested and souvenir a handsome inkstand and

TAKEN TO WYOMING

John Nolan, held in Martinsville as a fugitive from justice, will be taken back to Weston County, Wyoming, to stand trial on an indictment charging him with moving mortgaged property from the State. Requisition was made on Governor Stuart some days ago by Governor Cary, of Wyoming, for the prisoner. Nolan denied that he had violated any law, and protested against being delivered into the custody of the Wyoming authorities. Governor Stuart spent several days investigating the creumstances attending the case, and finally decided to issue rendition papers. Sheriff John Hackney will take the prisoner from Martinsville to Weston County, Wyoming.
